

THE
SAN FRANCISCO
MEETING OF
THE TRILATERAL
COMMISSION,
MARCH 1987

2 pages

Londra
Directeur : André Font

The Trilateral Commission San Francisco Plenary Meeting

Trilateral Memorandum

Diether Hoffmann

no 9

Trilateral Memorandum

Science and Technology in Trilateral Relations

Monday, March 23, 1987

Trilateral Commission Meeting

Trade is key to Trilaterals
Protectionism issue outranks
San Francisco Examiner

Kissinger predicts U.S.

By Harry Joplin
Henry Kissinger said he expects the United States and the Soviet Union to sign an agreement on nuclear non-proliferation but he doesn't think it will be especially beneficial to Western Europe or the country.
"I believe there will be an agreement in Geneva this year and it will be the cornerstone of Kissinger's plan to bring the two superpowers together Monday at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco."

税制上の配慮必要
従来の対策を継続
10年で300億の融資
委員会が閉幕

HENRY KISSINGER
Opposes '87